TO START FOOTBALL

AND VERY STRONG March 1 Practice At Charlottesville Breaks All Precedents.

> CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., March 4. Still feeling the sting of the defeat by Georgetown last fall, Virginia has broken all precedents by starting preliminary football practice on March 1. A large proportion of the moleskin warriors who will make the football team of 1911 were out for the first spring practice, by order of Head Coach Kemper Yancey. The men were put through the lightest kind of practice as a preliminary workout, and as the main object of this early training is to develop drop kickers, who have been scarce or Virginia elevens for the past few years, Yancey was encouraged with the num-her of applicants.

Twenty on the Field. About twenty men were on the field. Coach Yancey believes that the making of teams sure to win the Thanksgiving Day games is the work of the whole year, and not of some six weeks. Until the serious practice begins next September, he will try to keep every cadidate in the best physical condition. Many men are trying for other teams, and while they are so engaged the requirements of football are being incidentally subserved in the condition of

Cantillon's Men Training On His Kentucky Farm

HICKMAN, Ky., March 4.-Manager Joe Cantillon, of the Minneapolis club of the American Association, has fitted up training quarters for the members of is team on his farm near this place. Several of the players have already put in an appearance and all of the others are under orders to report by Monday. The team will chop wood and milk cows for Manager Cantillon for several weeks and then be in condition to start on a tour for exhibition games in Atlanta, Memphis, Chatta-go, Lexington, and several other South-ern cities.

Ohio Sunday Baseball Near to Realization

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 4.-The Ohio house of the general assembly voted for the Greeves Sunday baseball bill, and that measure is now a halfators that they will support the bill.

This action of the house in voting for the measure was made possible in the face of efforts of Floor Leader Price Russell to put up the bars against the game on Sunday. The vote on the measure was 61 for the bill and 46 against it. Representatives Greeves and Fellinger of Clavelend media the be played on Sundays if the voters of that city or town so decide. This will allow Sunday baseball in Cleveland and will let down the bars which have ways been held up by the city officials Since the Cleveland men were most anxious to have these games it is sup-posed that the treasury of the Naps will be sweetened by several thousand extra dollars during the next baseball season, In several cities such as Columbus Toledo, and Dayton this matter of Sun
